Hello, families!

This week, we will be reviewing the topics introduced in the past two weeks.

Expressively, we will focus on using the words "more", "all done", and "stop" to request continuation or to end an activity.

Receptively, we will focus on following the directions "touch (object)" and "take out".

The concepts we will review include "hot" vs. "cold" and "red" vs. "yellow" vs. "blue". Lastly, we will review the letters "C" and "D".

Ideas for home practice:

- After your child finishes their meal, bath, or specific routine at home, have them use the words "stop" or "all done".
- Have your child unpack their backpack with the direction "take out"
- Blow bubbles. When your child reaches for "more", have them sign/say/use their AAC device.
